SAUCE.—LEA AND PERRINS
WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.
PRONOUNCED BY CONNOISSEURS TO BE THE ONLY Good Sauce AND APPLICABLE TO Every Variety of DISH.

Extract of a letter from a medical gentleman at Madras to his brother at Worcester, May, 1851:

"Tell Lea and Perrins that their Sauce is highly esteemed in India, and is, in my opinion, the most palatable as well as the most delicious sauce that is made.

CAUTION.
LEA AND PERRINS
Beg to caution the public against spurious imitations of their celebrated
WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.

L. & P. have discovered that several of the Foreign Markets have been supplied with SPURIOUS IMITATIONS, the labels closely resembling those of the genuine Sauce, and in one or more instances the name of L. and P. forged.

L. and P. will proceed against any one who may manufacture or vend such imitations, and have instructed their correspondents in the various parts of the world, to advise them of any infringement of their rights.

IODINE OIL OF T. PERSONNE.
APPROVED BY THE IMPERIAL ACADEMY OF MEDICINE, PARIS.

ACCORDING to the Official report, adopted by the Academy, it is a fact, that this Oil, which is in every respect similar to sweet Almond Oil, is a drug of the highest value, and in many respects preferable to COD LIVER OIL. All the SCROFULOUS AND STRUMOUS DISEASES; the enlargements and tuberculisations of Glands, Buboes, tertiary affections. The beginning of Pulmonary Tubercles and several cutaneous diseases, as Lupus, subcutaneous Tubercles, are equally benefited by it.

M. RICORD the well known Surgeon to the Hospital du Midi, one of the Official reporters, says: In all curable cases, the cure, or at least, some amelioration, has been much quicker by this Oil, than by Cod Liver Oil, and the doses much smaller.

Sold in Paris, by M. LABELONYE & Co. Chemist, 19, Rue Bourbone Villeneuve.

Sold in Hongkong, by J. J. DA SILVA & SOUZA, ALFRED WRIGHT, Chemist &c., 8, 14 Wyndham Street and by A. DE SOUZA, Queen's Road Dispensary.

LABELONYE'S DRAGEES OF CUBEBS AND COPAIBA.

THESE "Dragees" which have for base, the active principle the Seed of Cubebs combined with Copaiba the assimilation of which is favored by a covering not in the least fatiguing to the stomach and they are warranted to stop immediately the most rebellious "Gleet" even those that have resisted Cubebs and Copaiba when taken alone.

Paris, LABELONYE & Co., 19, Rue Bourbone Villeneuve.

Hongkong, at J. J. DA SILVA & SOUZA, ALFRED WRIGHT, Chemist &c., 8, 14 Wyndham Street and A. DE SOUZA, Queen's Rd. Dispensary.

IN THE MIDST OF DEATH WE ARE IN LIFE.

NEW AND MOST VALUABLE MEDICINES FOR HITHERTO INVETERATE AND INCURABLE DISEASES.

UNLIKE the Patent Medicines generally imported from the United Kingdom, the following from France have been severely tested and scrutinised by the most eminent Government and private analytical chemists and practising physicians in Paris, &c., insomuch that the entire Parisian Faculty attached to the Government and other hospitals, &c., in the French dominions, can offer vigorous trials, with the fullest confidence recommend them to the favourable notice of all languishing not only under ordinary diseases, but those who may be "hoping against hope."

No more Cod Liver Oil.—Syrup of Iodized Horseradish. Prepared by Grimault & Co., Chemists 7, Rue de la Feuillade, Paris. According to the certificates of the physicians of the Paris hospitals, detailed in the prospectus, and with the approbation of several academies, this syrup is employed with the greatest success in place of cod liver oil, to which it is totally superior. It cures diseases of the chest, scrofula, lymphatic disorders, green sickness, muscular atony, and loss of appetite; it regenerates the constitution by purifying the blood, and is, in a word the most powerful deparative known. It never fatigues the stomach and bowels like the iodide of potassium and the iodide of iron, and is administered with the greatest efficacy to young children subject to humours or obstruction to the glands. Dr. Cusenavo, of St. Louis Hospital, Paris, recommends it particularly in cutaneous diseases, conjointly with the pills, which bear his name.

No more Consumption.—Diseases of the chest.—Syrup of hypophosphite of lime, manufactured by Grimault & Co., chemists, 7, Rue de la Feuillade, Paris. This new medicine, which is delicious to the palate, is a sovereign remedy for coughs colds, irritation of the lungs; and is also an excellent remedy in cases of consumption. Under its influence the cough abates, nocturnal perspirations cease, and the patient rapidly recovers health and flesh.

No more Indigestion or Dyspepsy.—Elixir of Pepsine. Prepared by Grimault & Co., chemists, 7, Rue de la Feuillade, Paris. Pepsine is the gastric juice itself, or rather the active principle purified, which digests food in the stomach. When from various causes the supply of the digestive fluid is too small, the inevitable consequences are bad digestion, gastritis, gastralgia, inflammation of the mucous coats of the stomach and bowels, heartburn, anæmia, loss of strength; and in females, general derangement. The Elixir of Pepsine, which is sanctioned by the approbation of the Paris Academy of Medicine, speedily cures all such diseases, and prevents vomiting during pregnancy.

No more Poverty of the Blood and Pale Complexion.—Phosphate of Iron.—Dr. Leras, Apothecary, Doctor of Science, 7 Rue de la Feuillade, Paris. This new ferruginous medicine contains the elements of the bones and blood, and iron, in a liquid state. From observations made in the Paris Hospitals, and detailed in the prospectus, it is superior to ferruginous pills, lactate of iron reduced by hydrogen pills and syrup of the iodide of iron, and cures rapidly stomach complaints, painful digestion, poverty of the blood, loss of strength and appetite, and the diseases incident to females. It is the best adjunct to cod liver oil and the best preserver of health in tropical climates.

INTERNAL OR LOCAL NEW CURATIVE AGENT.
MATFEO.
GRIMAULT & Co., PARIS.

THIS new remedy is prepared from the leaves of a Peruvian pepper shrub, called Matico, and CURES PROMPTLY and IMPALLIBLY without any fear of inflammatory results. The great majority of Physicians in Paris, Russia, Germany and New York, now use no other remedy. Full Directions accompany each Bottle and Packet; or an explanatory treatise will be sent post free for 9d.

DEATH.

At Canton, on the 8th November, CHARLES A. GAILLARD, aged 8 years, only Son of the late Charles W. Gaillard, Missionary of the Southern Baptist Convention.

The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, NOVEMBER 11, 1865.

WE imagine that Sir Rutherford Alcock is determined to insist on the performance of the treaty with respect to the opening of Trade at Chuchow, which is the district city near Swatow. The people there are a precise counterpart of the Canton braves, and until they have had a good lesson administered them, they will not be brought to reason. On the 1st instant Mr. Consul Caine paid an official visit to the Mandarins at the above city. He found the authorities perfectly willing but unable to conform to the treaty; the people however were turbulent to a degree, and there is no chance of the matter being settled satisfactorily without an appeal to arms.

The soldiers of the Ninth announce a Concert for this evening, to take place at the refreshment room in the Murray Barracks. The entertainment will be found duly announced in our advertising columns. We have seen a programme which indicates that much pains have been bestowed in getting the affair up, and which promises well. There is a much greater variety of talent called into acquisition than the public have the smallest idea of.

We hope that this attempt of the Ninth to make themselves amusing will be properly appreciated, and that our readers will feel it honor bound to support it to the full extent of its merits—which of course can only be ascertained by personal attendance.

WE have been favored with the temporary loan of a copy of the London and China Express of 26th September, which was brought to Singapore per Salsette and came to Hongkong per Asia. We could see nothing whatever in the dreary columns of our penny-a-line contemporary, except that the Queen has arrived at Osborne, and that the French Post Office had charged the Editor four shillings and two pence postage on a single copy of the North China Herald, because of the postage not having been prepaid. This latter circumstance is treated with great gravity, but was not calculated to disturb the present amicable relations existing between France and England.

No more arrivals of New Teas had taken place, and it was not thought likely that any further supplies would fetch the rates at which the cargoes of the Fiery Cross and Serica had sold.

There was something about the Foochow giants as the paragraph had not a black border, we infer that he was still alive, which is all the intelligence we can communicate to his friends and admirers.

We forgot to jot down the arrivals and departures.

WE regret that from information we have received we have reason to believe that sickness is not on the decrease in the Military Hospital, notwithstanding the alteration in the temperature that we have lately enjoyed. As no doubt the culpability that has led to the annihilation of the 2nd battalion of the 11th (as far as military purposes go) will be sought to be screened by ascribing the mortality and sickness solely to the deadly character of the climate of Hongkong, we would mention as an item to be taken into consideration in forming an opinion upon the subject, that while over 60 men out of 600 have died in three to four months, in the 2nd of the 11th, at the Victoria Gaol with an average of about 150 European prisoners there has only been one death during the past summer. Whilst the military have one half of a battalion invalided, the convicts have at present four men in hospital. It appears to us either that the gaol itself, the management of the convicts (or both) must possess an immense superiority over the treatment our poor soldiers are receiving in this colony. Another fact—out of 11,500 men stationed in North Western India (including cholera cases) there have been in the second quarter of the present year but one hundred and fifty deaths.

SOMETHING should be arranged as quickly as possible to send Mr. Mercer home. He is playing and havoc with the administration of this colony. He is in a panic regarding the Mint. The bankers do not like the concern, because they fear that the new dollar will throw their cash balances into the shade by putting the species of coin whereof they consist, at a discount. So they have persuaded our sapient maladministrator that after the Mint shall be ready, it will not be employed by the merchants or bankers. To meet this unfounded alarm what would our readers suppose Mr. Mercer proposes? To coin, free of charge, all the money for which bullion may be sent in during the first three months—to charge a small seigniorage on such as may be sent in during the second six months—and again a higher rate of seigniorage during the third three months—after which, the full charge will be made, when of course all the dollars required will have been coined.

Did any sensible man ever entertain such an idea? We never gave Mr. Mercer credit for either experience or intelligence, but after the lesson he should have learnt from the success of the small coinage, we never could have supposed that he would be so foolish as this scheme indicates that he is. The local government have the ball at their foot—they cannot expect the mint to pay at first. They should simply coin as much as is required for local purposes, and give the preference to what they coin in the collection of the taxes. They will soon see a tremendous run on the new dollar. Meanwhile, what about half and quarter dollars?

WE observe that our contemporary of the North China Daily News has taken offence at the letter signed Civis Romanus which appeared in our columns some little time ago on the subject of Chinkiang. It would appear that for some reasons which are unknown to us, it suits the views of certain parties, also unknown to us, to have the expensive paraphernalia of an open port maintained at Chinkiang. Our correspondent without even mentioning the existence of the clique whose views and interests this vast outlay entails, gave a most running account of his visit to the ruins in question, and we are perfectly certain that he in no way exceeded the narrow line of veracity, nor did he give a colouring to any of the points he sought to eliminate. His style was loose and lively, yet nevertheless terse and becoming—but its alleged demerit consisted in imparting unpalatable truths in, as it were, a gilded pill. We make no doubt that our correspondent was aware at the time he wrote the letter, of the existence of the clique who make a hobby of the ruins, and we dare say he took a little pleasure in "putting a spoke in their wheel"—but that he stated anything beyond the actual truth, we will not believe.

Now our Northern contemporary has ever been deemed a mere hireling—it is an absurdity to deny it—the proprietors in effect admitted the circumstance to our face, and although the fact has been denied, still every resident in Shanghai knows it well. We are therefore somewhat surprised at his temerity in "crossing our bawse" in the manner he has done in the case before us.

He calls our correspondent false, personal, abusive, and discursive. This is mere vituperation which he had been requested to emit, without being furnished with a brief. He knows nothing about the matter he is discussing—he has been desired to throw discredit on certain undoubted facts—he takes the seat of the scornful and does so. He carefully avoids opening any of the points in that long gossiping letter, but with inconceivable folly attacks our correspondent's veracity on two subjects which are supported by official documents.

One subject touches the Customs revenue received at Chinkiang. Our correspondent gave a very small sum as the returns for a certain month. He may have been misled, or misinformed, or he may be correct in the amount stated. But that the Customs revenue received at Chinkiang is a bagatelle, we have the returns published by Mr. Inspector General Hart, to convince us. The total receipts for 1863 were 37,590 taels and for 1864—39,048 taels. It surely needs no ghost to tell us that a Custom house, several Consulates, and all the paraphernalia of an open port including the presence of a gun boat to look after rowdies and braves, can be maintained or are worth being established, for a trade that yields such a pittance.

The other subject is that of tigers. When in first reading the letter, we touched the tigers, we certainly thought our correspondent was joking—and as we proceeded to read the startling recital, we determined on not believing about the tigers unless our friend should say that he had seen one of the brutes at least, alive or dead. But as we read on our determination was shaken, because the recital was palpably true, and when we came to the proclamation from the Mandarin, which formed an appendix to the letter, we could no longer allow ourself to doubt.

The question simply is, whether or not that proclamation is a translation of a bona fide document. If so, the man who would doubt what our correspondent says about tigers at Chinkiang must be a fool. The translation may be a canard—or the document from which it was translated may have been palmed off on our correspondent. These contingencies are possible, but we shall be glad to lay a heavy bet with any person capable of paying, if he should lose, that the translation we published, is an honest interpretation of a bona fide official document.

Our contemporary should really be heartily ashamed of himself.

Letters to the Editor.

To the Editor of the "Hongkong Daily Press."

HONGKONG, 9th November, 1865.

DEAR SIR,—The suggestions of your several correspondents as to the desirability of establishing a Volunteer Fire Brigade in Hongkong, strike me as being so reasonable as well as beneficial, that in anticipation of the public meeting that will shortly be held to settle things definitively, I will trespass upon your space to propose a scheme which I think will be found very well adapted to transform our mixed populations into one homogeneous mass as far as the extinguishing of fires is concerned—all animated by one grand idea of saving life and property and animated at the same time by a wholesome spirit of rivalry engendered by the different social rank and nationality of the respective companies. Let us do the thing in a comprehensive manner, at once and establish quite a sufficient number of Volunteer companies so as to be prepared for all emergencies. I propose the following organisation.

FIRST COMPANY.—Composed of Parsees. The much appreciated adaptation of Western notions which characterises this exemplary class of citizens will no doubt make them most effective in putting out fires.

No Mahomedans or Hindoos need apply for admission into this corps.

SECOND COMPANY.—"Teutonia" to be formed of the German residents. Uniform, Black, red, and gold with a profusion of banners for the engine.

A chosen number of smoke proof members to have charge of the fire escapes.

A notice of one hour and a half of requirement of services to be given to this company.

Singing allowed during working hours.

THIRD COMPANY.—Composed of Macao clerks. Members of this corps to have a chair to proceed to the scene of operations. Uniform. Patent leather boots and paper collars with a profusion of gold lace.

No pumping or hard work to be required of this company.

FOURTH COMPANY.—Government clerks and employés. Services to be required only in office hours, viz: between 10.30 A.M. and 4 P.M.

Uniform. A lion's or an unicorn's skin at the option of the wearer. Brass helmet surmounted by a cock's comb. Device in front: plume of Prince's feathers with the motto "ich dien." Behind a pigeon with "sic volbat."

FIFTH COMPANY.—Snobs and swells (vide Watowicks' letter). members of this company to dress as they like and do as they like. Members to be entitled to take charge of the nose pipe of any other engine.

Uniform, same as Commander in Chief of the forces.

Any member to be entitled to offer the Chief of Brigade as much advice as he likes.

No member of any other company to use any familiarity with, or to consider himself the equal of a member of this company on pain of losing his daily bread.

If any honours or rewards be bestowed by the local authorities on the Brigade, they are to be divided between this and the preceeding company.

SIXTH COMPANY.—Mechanics and such like people. Upon this company will devolve all the work therefore it will be their special privilege to be the first at every fire.

Uniform—none.

The use of edge tools and all mechanical operations to be left entirely to this company.

No member of this company during a fire to get out of temper with, or kick any member of any other company.

The six companies to form one brigade under the command of a gentleman who has passed the civil service examination, and whose age shall not exceed twenty-three.

The appointment to the command of the Hongkong V.F.B. shall not incapacitate said young gentleman from holding, up to six other government situations.

It shall be the duty of the Chief to promote harmony and efficiency amongst the members of the Brigade, and to prevent the dignity of number five company being infringed upon.

Members of all companies to drill weekly in chimney climbing, walking on roofs, running up and down ladders, breaking through walls and other essential duties of a fireman. A select class to practise with blunt axes under the guidance of foreman of No. 6.

All members except No. 2 and No. 5 companies shall, at any hour of the day or night upon the first alarm of fire, however they may be occupied, proceed at once to their duty and remain there under dismissed under pain of $5 fine.

Should a fire occur on mail day the penalty to be $10 for defaulters.

The establishment of this brigade not to interfere with any of the vested rights of existing institutions. Sardine's engine to be as formerly the sailors' engine never to be required to pump water for the soldiers as was unreasonably demanded at the late fire.

Neither sailors nor soldiers engines to carry above a moderate length of hose.

Tom Achoy's engine to remain for the instruction of the natives in fire tactics.

All expenses (including anniversary dinner) to be paid by the government.

I think Mr. Editor, that the above are the proper elements for an effective Fire Brigade and it will only rest with the leaders of the movement to get them to agree to work and to obey in order to prove a most efficient body, besides costing the community either directly or indirectly very little.

Hoping to see soon something of the sort established.—I am, Sir,

Yours Respectfully,
EARNEST JONES.

Police Reports.

BEFORE C. C. SMITH, Esq.

HONGKONG, 9th November, 1865.

YIP YUEN—was brought upon a summons at the instance of P. C. No 2 (Sergeant Albert) for retailing liquors without a license.

Complainant stated that having received information to the effect that the defendant was selling liquor, he sent a boy to purchase some, and he returned with a jar of samshu. The next morning he sent the boy again and watched him come out of the house with a second jar of samshu in his hand.

The boy corroborated the evidence of the complainant.

The Defendant, said, he did not sell common samshu but only medicinal wine.

Complainant, said on searching the premises he found eight large jars and two small ones.

Defendant, said he only used the large jars for selling to ships.

Fined $25, and told that if caught again a fine of something like $200 would be inflicted.

Two shopkeepers of Tai Ping Shan were fined $5 each for confederating with gamblers by giving them notice of the approach of the police and otherwise aiding them.

A Chinaman was charged with robbing one of his countrymen of $1.

The Complainant, said that he was proceeding to the Macao steamer when he was set upon by a lot of men, who took him into a shop and having beat him severely they then robbed him of the above mentioned sum.

The Defendant, denied the robbery. He said the plaintiff had kidnapped his brother and taken him to Macao where he was detained until he (defendant) redeemed him by the payment of $25.

The brother who had been kidnapped corroborated the above evidence and added that whilst in Macao he had plenty of rice and no work to do.

The case remanded to obtain further evidence.

Three Chinamen were brought up again on remand from yesterday charged with piracy and murder.

A boy stated that he belonged to a junk captured by pirates. The three prisoners had belonged to the piratical craft. He knew the first prisoner by his having made tea for him. The second prisoner had into told him to bolt water. The pirates had been chased by a gunboat and they had taken to the boats and come on land. They had travelled across country until they come to Kowloon and there the pirates had proceeded to Hongkong leaving him behind. He had communicated with the police and they had sent him out into the streets to see if he could see any of the pirates. He had met and recognised the three prisoners and they were taken into custody. He had also been to the gaol and there he had identified some of the prisoners brought in by the "Leven" as part of the piratical crew on board of the junk that had captured his vessel. He knew the third prisoner and his name became the head pirate had called over the names of all the crew once a day and he had heard him answer to his name. When on board of the pirate a man fell overboard and hung on to a rope that was trailing over the stern when one of the pirates, took a long bamboo spear and stabbed him with it so that he left loose and fell into the water.

(left sitting.)

HONGKONG, 10th November, 1865.

BEFORE C. C. SMITH, Esq.

We fell into an error in regard to the man charged with stealing a pig on the night of the fire. He was not committed to the Supreme Court as was the intention of the bench, but discharged as at the last formal hearing the prosecutor failed to appear.

The case of the four Chinamen charged with piracy and murder was continued. An old man corroborated the evidence of the boy as to having formed part of the crew of a junk captured by pirates, the pirates being again chased by a steamer when the crew took to their boats and escaped to the land. He recognised the prisoners as part of the piratical crew.

The case was then remanded.

P.C. 31, and P.C. 356 brought a number of natives up on the charge of obstructing the streets with hawking goods.

The Magistrate said the charges were frivolous, and he thought they were only preferred in order to give the constable an opportunity of escaping from their ordinary duty and attending several hours in court.

Four Natives were charged with unlawful imprisonment and extortion of $25.

HU AH SUN, a man between 50 and 60 said that on the 5th instant he came to Hongkong with a quantity of sweet potatoes and vegetables and sold them for eighteen cash. The [illegible] he went out for a walk to Wanchi when about [illegible] A.M. he was accosted by the first prisoner who invited him to step into a house and partake of a cup of tea. This he declined to do telling him that he did not know him. He was then suddenly seized from behind and carried into a house situated in a narrow alley, and taken upstairs. There were about ten men concerned in that proceeding. When they got me upstairs they tied my hands behind my back and robbed me of my clothes. Tacks and of $10. I had besides. My hands were tied behind me (shows marks of cords on his arms) I was kept there two days during which time I had not anything to eat, but they gave me some tea. I was also beaten badly when tied up in order to extort $30 more from me. I promised to give them the money, but I shall not do so as the promise was extorted from me. The rope by which I was fastened was made fast to a nail in the wall. They kept me tied up for two days and then let me go. I came to the Magistrate and got a warrant. Some police went with me and we went to the house where I was tied up but we did not find anybody there. I saw afterwards the prisoner in a barbers shop in Queen's Road East and pointed them out to the police who arrested them. The first and the third prisoners helped to tied me up, and the third prisoner beat me very badly. Some other men not in custody beat me as well. I have seen the first prisoner before at Tchung Tchun in May last. He came there with a troupe of actors; first he was only occupied as a gambler. I cannot say if I could find any more of the men concerned in my imprisonment. I think they are smart enough to escape to Macao. The first prisoner was the man that first asked me to drink tea.

The prisoner put no questions.

CHU AH KING.—

ST. SAVIOURS SCHOOLS,
Pottinger Street corner of Wellington Street

IT is most respectfully intimated to Parents and Guardians, that the New Schools lately erected in Pottinger Street corner of Wellington Street, in a style suitable to the wants of the climate and managed with a view of meeting the peculiar want of this Commercial Colony, are now in full operation.
The system of tuition adopted in these Schools is purely Commercial, Arithmetic, Book-keeping, Reasoning, Geography, History, Grammar, Composition, Foreign Languages, Music, and Drawing, are taught by proficient resident Masters. No objection is made to the admission of any Pupil on the score of religion nor will the religious feelings of any pupil be tampered with.
A suite of large Airy Rooms has been opened in the same Schools for the reception of Boarder Pupils. To Boys leaving home for the first time, the change will be made as easy as can be by the kindness which shall be shown them and by the exclusion of everything materially coercive.
Further particulars may be known by applying to the Principal J. Bonzazzi, who earnestly desires that communications be made before any boarder pupil is sent to the Schools.
